

Father's Message AND Current Newsletter.

Dear Parishioners

First, my thanks to Deacon John O'Brien and Mark for last week's message to you on the website.

The basic need is for us to pray to God so that we can best help each other and keep the Parish together in these difficult times, taking account of ever-changing Government health requirements.

How to do this:

- Pray regularly for God's help.
- Study the weekend scripture readings especially the gospel (John 11:1-45) and think how you can apply their message in your own life.
- Churches have had to be closed but priests, of course, continue to say Mass. Some of these Masses are being streamed.

You can watch, you can take part, please do so.

- Look after each other and keep safe.
